Garden Roof® Planning Guide App Now Available on All Major Mobile Platforms

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS (July 25, 2015) American Hydrotech's free, interactive Garden Roof® Planning Guide app is now available on all major mobile platforms.

Visit www.hydrotechusa.com/GRPG to download the Garden Roof® Planning Guide app from either the Apple Store, the Google Play Store, or the Windows Store.

Any mobile device user can immediately download the app for a comprehensive guide to vegetative roofs, from concept to completion. Users can also learn about the American Hydrotech Garden Roof® Assembly and its benefits, including economic incentives and environmental factors like stormwater management.

The app features pinch-to-zoom product photography, video animations, photo galleries showing Garden Roof® Assemblies in real-world applications, and design considerations. In addition to the new app, readers can send an email to guide@hydrotechusa.com or visit the American Hydrotech Resource Center at www.hydrotechusa.com/GRPG to request a published version of the Garden Roof® Planning Guide.
